

Kids' Plates Newsletter

Volume V, Issue 3

December 2004

Hello Kids' Plates Grantees,

Happy Holidays!

I wish you and your loved ones a wonderful holiday and a safe and joyous New Year.

January 2005
Kids' Plates Meeting:
Attendance Required

As you know, all 2004-2005 Kids' Plates grantees will be meeting on Tuesday January 25th, 2005 at the Sierra Health Foundation, which is located at 1321 Garden Highway in Sacramento, CA. The meeting is scheduled from 10AM-4:30PM. An agenda will be emailed to you in early January. If you need to arrive the night before the meeting, there are two hotels that are less than 1 mile to the meeting site. I have already emailed these hotels options to you. If you need this information again, please contact me.

We have a lot to do at this meeting, so please arrive on time. The meeting will begin promptly at 10AM.

Questions, comments, or concerns?
Contact me at 619-594-5039 or sholland@projects.sdsu.edu. - Shanna

Things You Might Like To Know About:

Free Grant Writing Classes Offered

Sacramento, CA: 2/1/05 (apply by 1/26/05)
Fresno, CA: 3/2/05 (apply by 2/23/05)
Redding, CA: 3/8/05 (apply by 3/2/05)
Orange County, CA: 3/22/05 (apply by 3/16/05)

To register for the one-day training in your region: Please email your name, job position, agency, address, phone, fax and email, and the location and date of the training you would like to attend. You will also need to provide a brief explanation of your agency's injury prevention efforts. Email to: sholland@projects.sdsu.edu. If you think you will need travel assistance, you must indicate that in your email when you register. You will be contacted for more information

Injury Prevention Summit 2005

From Advocacy to Action

Dates: March 30-31, 2005

Location: Wyndham Hotel in Palm Springs

Visit creativeeventsolutions.net/ipsummit after 1/15/05 for more information.

Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) Funding

OTS will be funding more traffic safety-related programs. The next round of concept papers for the 2005-2006 FY are due on January 31, 2005. For more information, please visit: ots.ca.gov.

HAPPY NEW YEAR