Have You
Heard?

Hello Kids' Plates Grantees,
As you may know, I have been calling all grantees receiving mini, community education, and/or model program grants, to obtain verbal progress reports on the status of program and marketing activities. It has been a real pleasure talking with so many of you about your Kids' Plates funded programs. I've enjoyed hearing about your successes as well as discussing the issues and concerns that have arisen. I also appreciate your honesty and openness about these triumphs and pitfalls. Thank you.

Needed this month...

For many of you, your second invoice is now due. Please take a look at the timeline your scope of work to determine if this applies to you. We still have quite a few incentive items for those of you conducting marketing activities where these might be useful. Please email Anne at aainsworth@projects.sdsu.edu if you'd like to request some.

We Are Getting Ready for the Kids' Plates 2007/2008 Funding Year

While we are in the process of awarding the last of the grant funds for this fiscal year, we've had a lot of inquiries about the next round of Kids' Plates grants, including: When will the RFAs be released online? What types of grants will be funded? How much will be funded? When will funding begin? Please know that we are working with EPIC on these issues and should have answers relatively soon. You may want to check the website at CIPPP.org for any updates. (There are none at this time). The really exciting news is that we should have more money to award in the 07/08 FY.
