June 2007

Have You
Heard?

Hi Kids' Plates Grantees,

It's June! Summer is on its way and we are very, very close to finishing the 06/07 Kids' Plates grant cycle. So, what does this mean for you? It means that it is time to wrap up your project and to spend your remaining funds (appropriately of course), before your particular grant period ends.

Remember: All related reports and invoices are due 30 days after the grant period ends.

When does your grant end?

Mini-Grants: June 15, 2007

Community Development Grants: June 15, 2007

Model Program Grants: June 30, 2007

Program Development Grants: June 30, 2007

Equipment Grants: June 30, 2007

Professional Development Grants: June 30, 2007

Please be sure that you complete all of your program and marketing requirements before your specific grant period ends. All related templates and final reporting documents are included in the CD ROM that was sent to you with your marketing materials. If you need copies of ANYTHING, please contact Anne at 619-594-0984 or aainsworth@projects.sdsu.edu.

The first round of 07/08 Kids' Plates RFAs will be online at the end of June. Please visit www.CIPPP.org to review and download them.

Bridging Strategies to Prevent Child Injury and Maltreatment

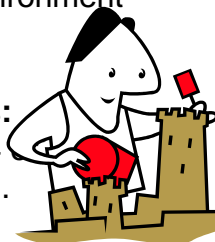

February 24-26, 2008
Sacramento, CA

The California Department of Public Health and the California Department of Social Services invite you to Discover the Connections at our first combined conference on Child and Adolescent Injury and Maltreatment Prevention. The conference will initiate discovery on how attendees can collaborate and learn from each other to ensure that every child enjoys a healthy life in a nurturing environment and community.
